The Journey An Ancient Tune

Pierluigi Carrozzi composer

The Journey An Ancient Tune, an ancient, atavistic testimony, a journey from the contingent to the metaphysical, from earth to Heaven, an ethereal tale of a journey that, through memory, turns its gaze above human existence towards higher dimensions: another vision, beyond the clouds, beyond the keenness of sight, in search of a new peace in the spasmodic search for truth. An archaic whirlwind of intelligences through the arches of existence, a journey through the arcades of imagination and soul, of a solitary heart, to reach an otherworldly ecstatic dimension, of eternal inner peace in dazzling shaded gardens beyond dreams, metaphysical nymphaeums of the soul.

Pierluigi Carrozzi, A composer who has always been in the music world, he began studying piano at an early age, later adding studies in musical harmony. He began his professional career in the world of music as a computer and keyboard programmer in major radio classical productions, live events and world premieres. He graduated in Composition and Film Music at the Saint Louis College of Music in Rome and later specialised in Composition. His music was performed at the Ink orchestra concerts (Saint Louis production), at the Auditorium Parco della Musica and the Teatro Eliseo in Rome. He works as a composer, author, arranger, programmer and sound designer. His experience embraces the various stages of music production, from the writing to the technical realisation of the final product, an experience gained over many years spent in recording studios.
