The Wind Shifted to the North
Alessio Miraglia

Concerto for Strings - Piano & Synth

Music inspired by the Dutch rain, the gray of the sky that contrasts with the red colors of the tulips. Classical melodies and harmonies meet modern electronics and noise. This interesting sound environment aims to guide the listener through a journey inside the composer's imagination.

Alessio Miraglia is a multi-awarded music composer, producer and sound engineer. His music has been featured in TV shows and documentaries (Netflix, HBO, National Geographic). Alessio has music & sound department credits for several films, such as Beauty and the Beast (2017), Batman v. Superman-Dawn of Justice (2016), Toy Story 4 (2019). His music TV show "AM Garden Show", which Alessio conceived, hosted and produced, received the 2020 Independent Producer award from the Alliance for Community Media.
